Lehigh Little League Internet Privacy Policy

The Lehigh Little League Internet Privacy Policy has been written to answer questions you might have about online privacy. As a youth organization, we are very concerned about privacy and go to extraordinary measures to safeguard any personal information we may collect about you or your children.

Advice to Children and Parents

We strongly advise children to get their parent's or guardian's permission before submitting any kind of personal data over the Internet. We urge parents to be very clear with their children regarding the danger of giving personal information to anyone (online or in person) they don't know. We also encourage parents and guardians to spend time online with their children and to participate in the activities offered on the sites they visit.

Parents and legal guardians have the opportunity to restrict Lehigh Little League's access to any personal information collected from children under the age of 13. In addition, parents and legal guardians have the right to request that any information currently held by Lehigh Little League that has been collected online about their child or children be deleted.

What personal information do we collect?

At Lehigh Little League, we don't collect personal information about you or your children online (name, address, e-mail, and so on) unless you provide it to us voluntarily and knowingly. The only times we will ask for personal or contact information from you will be to enable us to respond to your inquiry.

If you do not want your personal information collected, even for these reasons, please do not submit it to us.

Do we disclose it?

Effective January 1, 2004, Lehigh Little League does not sell, loan, exchange, or make available in any way the names, addresses, or any other contact or demographic information concerning our volunteers or players.
